ENTRIES WILL ONLY BE ACCEPTED IN CLASSES LISTED.
PLEASE READ THE RULES.

Current 2007 Connecticut Fair & Show Requirements will be enforced.

All birds must be banded and tested for Pullorum.

Please see these regulations on page .

1. Entries close Saturday, September 15th, 2007. No post entries can be accepted.
2. There will be two shows, senior (Open) and junior, giving our juniors a better chance. Juniors must be 16 years of age or younger.
3. Entries will be judged by the Standard of Perfection. No production birds will be allowed in the Open show and only one (1) production entry per exhibitor for the junior show.
4. All entries must be identified by Division (Standard, Bantam, Game, Waterfowl, Pigeon) by breed and variety (such as Barred Plymouth Rock, Silver Laced Wyandotte, etc.) and Class (Cock, Hen, Pullet, Cockerel).
5. Feed and bedding will be provided by the committee. An entry fee of fifty cents (50¢) will be charged each bird and the exhibitor must pay admission at the gate. No entry fee for egg entries.
6. Birds must be cooped by Thursday September 20th, 2007. Entries will be accepted between 5:00 -9:00 pm and must be in place until 6:00 pm Sunday.
7. Entries close when cages are full. No more than 30 birds per farm or family without approval of the chairman.
8. Only healthy, non-molting birds will be shown. Out-Of-State exhibitors must provide a certificate of health prior to cooping.
